First Lent ~ Living Ink: Letting Go of the Pen:

When we acknowledge God as the author of life, “letting go of the pen” becomes possible. There are necessary moments in our stories when we come to the end of ourselves and realize the need to give up our pen. This is when we have opportunities to recognize the Word planted in us and to rely on the Author to be our provider/daily bread, by allowing God’ hand to write our lives.

9:45 SUNDAY SCHOOL

There are classes for adults. Please join the class of your choice.

Fred, Nancy & Angela are all attending Pastor's Week at Grebel Wednesday to Friday.

 Pray for Darrell & Florence Jantzi as they travel in Ethiopia.

We begin our season of Lent this Sunday as we explore together our worship theme: Living Ink. If we consider our lives being “written on a page” through our actions every day, do we allow God to be our “co-author,” as we release the pen and give God some control of what is written?
 During our time of sharing in the service this Sunday, you are invited to reflect and share on a faith question: The reflective question for this Sunday is: “Think about a time when you had to depend on God. How did this experience shape your faith?”
The reflective question for next Sunday is: “Do you have a special place where God seems near to you? What does it mean to you to be able to go to that place?”
 This week the Lenten service will be Wednesday, 7:00 at Elmira Mennonite with Fanoise Legesse speaking.
