L: In the midst of myriad distractions, we gather, longing for you.

All: Restore us, O God! We hunger.

L: In the midst of the temptation to live in fear, we gather, trusting in you.

All: Restore us, O God! We hunger.

L: In the midst of the challenges of daily living, we gather, craving your presence.

Confession and Words of Assurance
L: God of abundance, you give us all we need. We confess that, too often, we focus on what we don't have. We forget that it is you who truly sustains us. Forgive us. Satisfy us with your steadfast love, and help us to take refuge in remembering that what you provide is good. It is enough. God of abundant grace,
All: restore us.

L: Rejoice in the Lord and be glad. Sing praises to the Lord! Taste and see that the Lord is good. Amen.

with Pete Ellis & Roy Draper

Discussion Questions: Nancy Mann

1. What are three things that made you smile?
2. Hornswoggle and Scabsworth have quite a "temptation box!" What temptations were they using to "fish for Christians"?
3. Hornswoggle knows that different people are tempted by different things. Think about yourself. What is an area of temptation for you? If you feel comfortable, share with your group.
4. Hornswoggle said, "When they are together, they are harder to catch." What do you think?
5. Our scripture this morning from the gospel of Matthew was about Jesus' temptation in the wilderness. Does it help us to remember that Jesus was also tempted?
6. As we conclude our discussion time, take a moment to thank the people in your group for being a part of our faith family together.

Sharing our Response: We will invite a few people to share thoughts from their discussion groups.
