TODAY we welcome First Responder guests from the following community services:

- Region of Waterloo Paramedic Services
- Township of Woolwich Fire Services
- Waterloo Regional Police Service

We are so grateful that when we are in need, these caring professionals respond with skill and compassion. In our worship this morning, our Biblical story of the Good Samaritan reminds us that anyone can be in need and anyone can choose to serve. After worship, please join us for a delicious lunch, followed by the opportunity to visit with First Responders in our community and tour their equipment. We thank them for joining us today.

Schedule for the day:

Outdoor Worship:	11:00 am
BBQ lunch:	12:30 pm
Visiting with our First Responder Guests:	1 - 3 pm
Young adult Baseball game behind the church	3 pm

Offering our Gifts: All envelope offerings will be used to support the ongoing ministries of our congregation. In addition to our church expenses, our church offerings support refugee partnerships with other churches and community groups, through partnerships with MCC, Woolwich Community Services, Woolwich Counselling Services, MennoHomes (Elmira project) as well as other local and global ministries. Loose offerings from today's service and donations of non-perishable food products will go to support the work of Woolwich Community Services. Please note that there is no charge for the lunch today. You are welcome as our guests.

Worship Team
